DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 3, 4, 7-11, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Treyz et al (6,526,335).

As per claims 7 and 8, Treyz teaches a communication device establishing a connection to a communication line outside a car to transmit data input through the server over the communication line for receiving results of the communication in form of voice (figures 1, 2, 4, 13). In addition Treyz teaches the moving terminal receiving information, including map or traffic information (column 20, lines 31-38, figures 15 and 29). Regarding the audio, voice-recognition, and voice synthesis, Treyz support these functions in column 13, lines 36-50. Treyz does not teach notifying a termination of communication with the moving terminal. However, it would have been obvious to one skill in the art that if no information is needed from the terminal, it will be no communication.

As per claim 3, Treyz discloses input means for starting the communication device by one operation and establishing communication for the audio interactive server (figures 1 and 2).

As per claim 4, the moving terminal device has a screen for displaying images of character information and map information and displays interaction contents during audio interaction on the screen (column 20, lines 31-38, Figure 15 and 29).

Art Unit: 3661

As per claims 9 and 10, Treyz discloses the moving terminal device automatically transmits predetermined information of non-voice (column 15).

As per claim 11, Heyz discloses the certification process (column 30, lines 45-50).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Regarding claims 5-6, the phrase "such as" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claim 20 is allowed.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Art Unit: 3661
